

Thank You For Being A Scout Leader

As we continue to grow as Scout Leaders, let us never forget who we are the leaders of. Dean Elliott, a former District Director in both Clinton Valley Council and Detroit Area Council passed along a unique point of view of the world, contrasting the views of an adult and a Scout. The following is paraphrased from the lessons he taught and the values he instilled.

From the six foot level of adults:

The stairs don't seem so steep.
The bicycle is not going downhill fast.
The years go by faster and faster.
Being yelled at doesn't hurt our feelings.
Removing a sliver or getting stung by a bee doesn't hurt.
Thunder isn't scary.
There is no "Man in the Moon".

Just once in a while, put yourself in the place of a young child and get down on the ground:
See how steep the stairs really are!
See how fast the bicycle is going and how scary it is!
See how long the school year lasts, and how short the summer is!
Cry when you get yelled at.
Removing a sliver or getting stung by a bee really does hurt.
Thunder is a reason to crawl under the covers, or to cuddle with mom and/or dad.
Looking at the face on the moon and imagining the Man in the Moon.

Never forget the love of the family and the wonder, beauty and immenseness of the world as seen through the eyes of a child.

Good Night and God Bless You,

Thank You For Being A Scout Leader

Venturing Oath. As a Venturer, I promise to do my duty to God and help strengthen America, to help others, and to seek truth, fairness, and adventure in our world.

Venturing Code. As a Venturer, I believe that America's strength lies in our trust in God and in the courage, strength, and traditions of our people. I will, therefore, be faithful in my religious duties and will maintain a personal sense of honor in my own life. I will treasure my American heritage and will do all I can to preserve and enrich it. I will recognize the dignity and worth of all humanity and will use fair play and goodwill in my daily life. I will acquire the Venturing attitude that seeks truth in all things and adventure on the frontiers of our changing world.
